DESCRIPTION

Through the Cross-Culture Cooperation and Solidarity project, we aim to build a bridge of culture between young Roma and non-Roma that will provide an example of fruitful cooperation, inclusion and responsibility for other people, communities and countries.

Purpose of the project

Promoting ESC and Erasmus+ opportunities among young people from disadvantaged groups to facilitate inclusion.

OBJECTIVE 1

Promoting education about hygiene, recycling and their impact on the environment and health.

OBJECTIVE 2

Promoting civic engagement and active citizenship among volunteers and the Roma community through the visual arts.

Location- Iasi

For those who prefer a quieter neighborhood, Copou is the right area for you. It is an important historical part of the city, here are positioned old houses and green spaces (Copou Park and Exhibition Garden, located near the Botanical Gardens), representing one of the most sought residential area of Iasi.

The Union Square represents a spatial landmark of the city and the intersection place of three major streets: “Ștefan cel Mare” Boulevard (the former Big Street), Alexandru Lăpușneanu Street (the former Serbian Street) and Cuza Vodă Street (the former Golia Street).

The square has a special meaning to Romanians because in front of Petre Bacalu’s Inn (situated in the past on the parking space in front of Victoria Cinema), “Hora Unirii” was danced for the first time in 1857, and then, after the announcement of the Union of Romanian Principalities on the 24th of January 1859, which was made through the double election of Prince Alexandru Ioan Cuza. This historical moment is illustrated in a famous painting by the Iași artist Constache Agafiței, found at the Museum of the Union. This is also the place where the first unification gathering took place, during the oath taken in June 1917 by the Transylvanian volunteers to free Transylvania.

The Palace of Culture (Romanian: Palatul Culturii) is an edifice located in Iași, Romania. The building served as Administrative and Justice Palace until 1955, when its destination was changed, being assigned to the four museums nowadays united under the name of Moldavia National Museum Complex. Also, the building houses the Cultural Heritage Conservation-Restoration Centre, and hosts various exhibitions and other events.

LANGUAGE TRAINING

Volunteers are really welcome to learn Romanian before and during the project. Before coming to Romania, volunteers can practice using several online tools (Duolingo, Memrise). Before coming, each volunteer will receive an email by Online Linguistic Support (OLS) with the link for the “Assessment Test”. After filling it, each volunteer will receive another email to start the online course provided by Erasmus+ (<http://erasmusplusols.eu/>). OLS will be the official tool to use to learn Romanian during the ESC. Two weeks before the end of the project each volunteer will receive an email with the final linguistic test to fill, in order to receive the final level of Romanian.

ACTIVITIES

- The European volunteers are going to collaborate and work together closely with their supervisors which are also the designated supervisors of the target groups', as well as our permanent volunteers, all with the purpose to prepare in a quality manner their activities for and with the disadvantaged Roma communities, Ses Bahlui, Tatarasi Barceaus, Zmeu, which are the main focus of our project.
- The activities will be organized in workshop, group activities and presentations.
- The activities will include a series of workshops that the volunteers, with our full support, will organize and support for teenagers on various topics: Personal Development, ESC and Erasmus+ opportunities, workshops on health and environment, freedom of expression through arts, crafts, civic education, Rights and Responsibilities workshops, etc.
 - There will be some office as well as non-office activities.
- The atmosphere will be engaging, creative and there will be a chance to express the creative and artistic sides, and also the opportunity to learn to give information through non-formal methods.
